HE KISSED HER OFTEN AND SHE LEFT HIM FORTUNE; RELATIVES CONTEST WILL

Dr. Jetham F. Black, until quite recently everything seemed to be going well with Dr. Jetham F. Black, of Cleveland, O. An aged woman, Mrs. Rebecca E. Lord, ninety, had died leaving him the most of her fortune, variously estimated from $16,000 to $40,000. Dr. Black was indeed happy. But Dr. Black was not long permitted to peacefully enjoy the thought of adding sixteen or forty thousand dollars to his bank roll. Relatives of the aged woman instituted proceedings to have the will set aside on the ground of undue influence. Evidence has been admitted showing that Dr. Black made ardent love to the aged woman in her declining years, and when he called upon her often kissed her as many as twenty times in ten minutes. Relatives claim that this treatment turned Mrs. Lord's head. Dr. Black admits the kissing, but says he did not consider that making love.

CHARTERS

Are Granted by the Secretary of State to More State Concerns.

CHARLESTON, June 7.—The holding of a state-wide primary and the sweeping of the state in the first of its kind by Senator Hatfield by a majority almost big enough to sink a ship, did not deter the incorporation in the state of several large concerns, the largest being the Kanawha River Coal Company, with principal offices in Detroit, Mich., but the principal place of business will be at Wheelers, Kanawha county, West Virginia, including general milling, and drilling for oil and gas. The company has an authorized capital of $250,000, of which $200,000 has been subscribed and paid. The incorporators are Edward C. Riggs, John E. S. Taylor, Benjamin F. Mulford and Edward C. Riggs, trustee, all of Highland Park, Mich., and F. P. Key, of Charleston. Of the 20,000 shares, all but five are held by the trustee.

Sleep Oil and Gas Company, of Ashland, Ky., to drill for oil and gas in the State of Kentucky. Authorized capital, $100,000. Incorporators: J. J. Johnson, H. B. Smith, K. M. Fitzgerald, L. S. Wilson and S. E. Harman, all of Ashland, Ky.

J. W. Johnson Company, of Lexington, Ky., to deal in timber and real estate and manufacture lumber, etc., in Quicksand, Breathitt county, Ky. The authorized capital is $100,000, and the incorporators J. W. Johnson, P. A. Rutledge, of Lexington, Ky.; G. A. Koontz, M. A. Simms and E. E. Williams, of Huntington, W. Va.

Patterson-Moran Company, of Morgantown, W. Va., to act as general contractors. Authorized capital, $50,000. Incorporators: James W. Patterson, J. J. Delbert F. Hines and James E. Moran, of Morgantown; Elmer E. Francey, of Toronto, O.; Ora M. Hines, of Canal Dover, O.

Buffalo Mill & Feed Company, of Buffalo, W. Va., to manufacture flour, meal, etc., and conduct general merchandise business. Authorized capital, $20,000. Incorporators: L. Quickle, T. F. Pitchford, R. E. Blake and R. J. Collins, of Buffalo, W. Va., and E. B. Henson, of Charleston, W. Va.

CODY

Will Positively Be Here When Wild West and Far East Circus Comes.

Maor John M. Burke, for many years identified with Buffalo Bill on the prairies and with the reproduction of frontier history of Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill's amalgamated exhibitions, the Wild West and Far East, was in the city last night.

The major wishes to assure the doubting Thomases that Col. Cody, the veritable Buffalo Bill, and Pawnee Bill will both be here with the enlarged exhibition June 14. Col. Cody will appear here in the saddle for the last time and the major hopes that this colossal organization will not be confounded with the many smaller appropriators of the title.

This season the Cody-Lille alliance, under the personal supervision of the "Two Bills," will be presented with some marked changes calculated to give a renewed interest to the all-world-wide dual exhibition.

All the well-remembered realistic features and interesting peoples in their native activities, in both sections, will be retained, and, in each several novelties will repay the most biased and cause admiration that the additions make to the management's achievements in reach prominence.

The arena will be so changed that the spectator's view of the various episodes will be greatly improved, while the addition of mammoth scenery to the background will give pleasing semblance of locality to the action of the participants to which they are "to the manner born."

One appropriate addition to the Far East will be Max Gruber's sextette elephant act, led by the Siamese mammoth, queen of trained elephants, "Minnie," the greatest of all pachyderm performers of intricacies which demand skill, judgment and intelligence in educated maneuvers that will not only astonish the beholder, but give future food for thought as to the animal development in the sense of touch, discretion in action and perfect comprehension of what is demanded and how to attain the results. The most perfectly trained thoroughbred horse, "Excelsior" (who is in an equine class by himself), will compete with "Minnie" for admiration and plaudits, while the dandy little pony, "Peacock," will be in the running when horsemen discuss whose head shall be crowned with the laurel wreath of victory, as the king of horse students in the acquiring comprehensively of man's tutoring tactics in artificial achievements.

An old fashioned fox hunt with Gerner and Kenny's high jumping hurdles, the unrivaled winners of international horse shows, the Vinfiz, six horse team of dapple grays, driven by "Billy" Wales, will be added to the world-covering horse exhibit; the Boris Fridkin Russian Peasant dancers and other novelties will be vying features to the standard one in the Wild West and Far East, on the occasion of the old scout's farewell.

CHANGE OF DATE.

The annual memorial services of Clarksburg Lodge, No. 39, Knights of Pythias, will be held Sunday, June 16, at 2:30 p. m. instead of June 9.
